

ALICE IN BLUNDERLAND

An Iridescent Dream

by John Kendrick Bangs

LibriVox

Alice in Blunderland an Iridescent Dream

by John Kendrick Bangs (1862-1922)

John Kendrick Bangs was an American author and satirist, and the creator of modern Bangasian Fantasy, the school of fantasy writing that sets the plot wholly or partially in the afterlife.

Plot summary: J K Bangs has taken Alice from Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland" and lets her on a boring day travel with the Mad Hatter, the March Hare, the Cheshire Cat and the other of Carroll's familiar characters to Blunderland. The story is a well written Satire, a witty, humorous tale of adventure and city politics, a tale of Alice in a land where nothing is as it should be.

This project has 7 files and a total running time of 1:56:50.

Read by Lars Rolander

Dedicated Proof-Listener: Elli

Artwork from the original book by Albert Levering (1869-1929)

Cover design: Bart de Leeuw

Meta-Coordinator/Cataloging: Leni

For more information or to volunteer, please visit librivox.org.

All LibriVox productions are in the Public Domain.

John Kendrick Bangs - Alice in Blunderland

John Kendrick Bangs - Alice in Blunderland